An editor, down at Harrisburg, says the Williamsport Bolletin, has got a flying machine. The "f" got knacked off the name in some way, but he goes right on using it just the same. A minister without boldness, is like a smooth

A Sacramento lawyer remarked to the Court : "It is my cardid opinion, Judge, you are an old fool." The Judge allowed his mildly beaming eye to fall upon the lawyer a brief moment, then, in a voice husky with suppressed emotion, said : "It is my candid opinion that you are fined $100."

The last experiment in the swindling line is that of a fellow who claims to be a regular oculist and sprist, with an office in Boston, and is traveling in the suburban towns selling fifty cent spectacles for $7.50 a pair. He warrants them to cure desiness and blindness, and says they are charged with galvanism in such a manner as to render cure speedy and permanent.

An absect-midded Pittsburgh shopman laid his pocket-book, containing a considerable sum of money, on the counter the other day, and forgetting to whom it belonged, pressed it upon one of his lady enstomers, assuring her, in spite of her donbts, that it was her property. substance has been applied to a variety of uses;

but on account of the skill required in the work-

especially to the eyes, the articles may as yet be classed as curiosities. When felted, it forms excellent material for chemical filters. It is affected by light, heat, moisture nor acids, and by reason of their incombastibility, are peculiarly adapted to ladies' garments. The annexed prices

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

THE PUBLIC ARE CAUTIONED AGAINST I the unfounded statements frequently made, "that the composition of Chronovers is known to Chem-sts and the Medical profession." The method and secret of the preparation have never been published. It is obvious, therefore, that anything solution order the name, save Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE, is a spurious imitation.
